NB. A National Clearing Code (NCC) is needed for making a payment to an account that doesn't have an IBAN. They are also known as Routing Codes. If you have a SWIFT/BIC or IBAN code then you don't need an NCC. These days they are mostly used for payments outside the EU. No, Australian bank accounts do not have an IBAN – we use a BSB and account number. Suncorp uses a SWIFT code. If you're sending money from overseas to a Suncorp Bank account, our SWIFT code is METWAU4B. Note: Overseas banks may also use a SWIFT code instead of an IBAN.*

PLEASE email to let me know you have made the deposit and also be aware that your bank might make charges for these transfers and so you will need to ensure the actual CASH received on our end is the exact deposit and tuition fees.
